“We owe them everything—our lives, our well-being, and our personalities.”

About Vasileios Karantalis, MD, PhD

Dr. Vasileios Karantalis is honored to use his compassion and knowledge as a physician to serve his community. He finds it very humbling to help those in need and is especially passionate about caring for the senior population. “We owe them everything—our lives, our well-being, and our personalities,” Dr. Karantalis explains. He strives to actively listen to his patients’ concerns and hopes. “I view our relationship as a collaboration for their well-being,” he says. Dr. Karantalis adds that as a physician, the “learning never ends.”

In his free time, Dr. Karantalis can be found spending time with his family and friends or enjoying the outdoors. He especially loves hiking, kayaking, and using his telescope for astrophotography.
