“I like my patient to be my partner to take care of their health.”

About Naseem Ali, FNP-BC

Naseem Ali loves educating and motivating her patients. She strives to be accessible and enjoys building relationships with them. “I like my patient to be my partner to take care of their health,” she says. She strives to help senior patients enjoy their retirement. “I want them to have a quality of life without complications from their chronic diseases and have more good days,” she explains. She loves keeping her workplace happy by telling jokes and drawing smiley faces. To keep up with the latest medical advancements, she reads medical journals and UpToDate.

Naseem Ali loves catching up with her friends and family in her down time. She also enjoys walking outdoors and watching documentaries.
